

Workplace Health and Safety Manager

Become a health and safety leader with this comprehensive program. You'll gain the expertise you need to create and maintain a safer work environment and help your company save money. Topics range from OSHA compliance to state-of-the-art emergency management techniques.

- Knowledgeable instructors—Learn from experienced health and safety professionals
- Real-world learning—Projects and case studies provide dynamic training in best practices and methods for maintaining a safe work environment
- Networking—Learn from and alongside peers in the health and safety industry
- REHS Credit—If you are a Registered Environmental Health Specialist (REHS), many of our classes will count toward continuing education credit

For more information or to enroll
cpe.ucdavis.edu/ohscert

Program at-a-Glance

- Complete in as few as 28 months
- 9 classes
- Individual course: $625-790 each
- Entire program: $5,190-$5,865

Industry Facts

$76,340 is the average salary for an Occupational Health and Safety Specialist
—Bureau of Labor Statistics, 2020

“I highly recommend the Workplace Health and Safety Manager Certificate Program because it prepares you for a career in the health and safety industry.”

—Vicky Udomvaranon, facilities coordinator,
San Francisco

UCDAVIS

Continuing and Professional Education

Your Academic Path

Health and Safety for Workers: Laws and Regulations

1.5 quarter units academic credit, X431.9

Typically Offered: Fall and Spring Learn the relevant laws and regulations pertaining to occupational health and safety.

Industrial Safety Hazard Control

2.25 quarter units academic credit, X431.20

Typically Offered: Winter and Summer Understand industrial hazard control by learning to identify and assess hazards in the workplace.

Health and Safety Management and Program Development

3.0 quarter units academic credit, X488.4A

Typically Offered: Fall and Spring Learn how to investigate the causes of accidents and develop health and safety training programs.

Introduction to Industrial Hygiene

1.5 quarter units academic credit, X488.30

Typically Offered: Winter and Summer An introduction to the science behind industrial hygiene.

Industrial Hygiene Sampling and Monitoring Instruments

1.5 quarter units academic credit, X488.31

Typically Offered: Winter and Summer Learn how to use instruments to measure air contaminants and physical agents.

Ergonomics in the Workplace

1.5 quarter units academic credit, X488.2B

Typically Offered: Fall and Spring Learn the fundamentals of ergonomics in industrial and office workplaces.

Fire and Life Safety Awareness

1.5 quarter units academic credit, X488.6

Typically Offered: Fall and Spring Discover fire and life safety hazards common to workplace environments and how to prevent them.

Emergency Preparation and Management

1.5 quarter units academic credit, X485.20

Typically Offered: Fall and Spring Gain insight into how to be more proactive in emergency preparedness.

Incident Investigation Techniques

1.5 quarter units academic credit, X4431.22

Typically Offered: Winter and Summer Acquire the knowledge, practical skills and tools you need to conduct incident investigations.

LEARN AND SAVE!

If you commit to completing our Workplace Health and Safety Manager Certificate Program in three years or less, we'll:

- Pay for the final class in your program (up to $675)
- Waive the $125 candidacy fee

cpe.ucdavis.edu/ohscert

“UC Davis Continuing and Professional Education is definitely one of the first places I recommend staff to go to for training.”

–Juan Viña, master technician, Downstream Manufacturing, Genentech

For more information or to enroll

cpe.ucdavis.edu/ohscert